THIS IS THE PEOPLES DAY,

AND THIRTEEN MILLION VOTERS HAVE THEIR SAY ABOUT THINGS.

Committees and Candidates Will All Sing For the Returns Tonight and Hear Something—You Can't Tell What Until You Hear It—Character of the Campaign.

This is the day on which 13,000,000 voters are to have their say. It is the most peculiar election, in some respects, in the history of the country. As has been mentioned on our pages before, in more than half of the States the secret ballot is used for the first time. The Democratic managers emphatically declare that they are glad this is the case, and their Republican adversaries are just as well pleased. The leaders at the two headquarters said yesterday that this would be more of an election by the people than any election in the nation's history.

Over the organization of the People's party its members have boasted that within its ranks most of the business of the people has been done. Other efforts for the quarter of a century have been made with Democratics. These the Republicans will watch closely.

On the other hand, Democratic leaders have justified in more than $50,000,000 to the prompt release of Democrats who are noted for purposes of intimidation. This has been accepted, and Davenport can't sacrifice twenty-four hours to consider. Among the men who justified yesterday as bondsmen

John W. Wilson, 20th street and Hamilton
